

Colloquium Director

Announcements, Notes, and News

The Fall Faculty Colloquium Committee of the Hall Center for the Humanities has selected a project proposed by Anna Neill, English, and Leslie Tuttle, History, for the Fall 2011 colloquium. The topic for the colloquium will be "Consciousness in Interdisciplinary Perspective." Neill and Tuttle will frame the colloquium, select seven faculty members and one graduate student as participants, and lead the weekly discussion of participant papers. Neill will receive a one-class teaching release for Fall 2011.

Anna Neill

• Two KU English faculty members were featured in recent University-affiliated publications. Marta Caminero-Santangelo wrote a short piece for KU Endowment's KU Giving entitled "Tell a story, change a life" about her experience of reading Luis Alberto Urrea's The Devil's Highway. Mary Klayder is the subject of an article in the KU Office of Study Abroad publication, (the jayhawk planet). Klayder's Winter Break study abroad in Costa Rica marked her 25th venture taking KU students to Great Britain and Latin America. Read both articles while you're waiting for the copier to be fixed in 3001M Wescoe.

• One of the "dates to anticipate" in last week's DNB was Rachel Blau DuPlessis's poetry reading on Monday, 7 March. Place and time were listed as TBA. The reading will take place in the Malott Room of the Kansas Union at 7:30 pm.

• Frank Farmer has been elected to the MLA Division Executive Committee on Language and Society. He will also serve as a representative to the delegate assembly.
