Cherniss, Michael

Rpt. [Untitled Essay on Andreas Capellanus], Classical and Medieval Literature Criticism, ed. E. Gallert & J. O. Krstovif. Detroit: Gale Group, 2001: 118-127. Originally printed as "The Literary Comedy of Andreas Capellanus," Modern Philology 72 (1975): 223-237.

Irby, Kenneth

In Denmark (book). No: a journal of the arts 2 (2003): 49-116. [Ken's book is a publishing oddity – a book with cover, table of contents, and a different paper stock, printed in the middle of a journal issue.]

McKitterick, Chris

"Software Installation Extension Technical Reference" (topic), "Core Group Policy Technical Reference," and "Software Restriction Policies Technical Reference" (sub-topics). Windows Server 2003 Technical Reference, <<http://www.microsoft.com/technet/>>. An expanded version of this document will be published in print in 2004.

Presentations

Announcements, Notes, & News

• Guest lecturer Jeffrey Williams (see "Calendar") teaches the novel, the history of criticism, and contemporary theory at the University of Missouri-Columbia. He has published widely on fiction, theory, and the politics of the profession. His books include Theory and the Novel: Reflexivity in the British Tradition (Cambridge, 1998), and the edited collections PC Wars: Politics and Theory in the Academy

(Routledge, 1995). All faculty members and graduate students are invited to Professor Williams's lecture.

• Bud Hirsch was elected to the Executive Committee of the Western Literature Association at the Annual Conference in Houston, Texas.

• KU Playwrights In Mizzou: The Missouri Playwrights Workshop presented staged readings of three one-act plays by KU playwrights on Saturday November 1 in Stotler Lounge of the Memorial Union at the University of Missouri-Columbia. "Report to the River" by Paul Stephen Lim was presented at 2 PM. And at 8 PM there was a double-bill of "The Sunshine Game" by Tim Macy, and "A Little Faith, Goddammit!" by Paul Shoulberg. Prof. David Crespy of MU directed all three plays, and moderated the discussion which followed each one. English Alternative Theatre hopes to return the favor by featuring staged readings of plays by Mizzou students in spring of 2004.

• The hard copy of the AWP Job List has arrived. It will be placed with the current MLA job lists in 3116 Wescoe.

• Hall Center Spring 2004 Proposal Writing Workshop, co-directors Maria Carlson and Victor Bailey, bi-weekly January through March, to prepare a grant proposal by April for submission to NEH or other national grant competitions. Registration deadline: 7 November. Registration form on "Conferences" bulletin board.

• For those of you who did not see the online edition of Kansas Alumni Association's KU Connection, one article featured Laura Moriarty (M.A. 1999), who has donated $23,000 of the proceeds from her recent book contract with Hyperion Books (for The Center of Everything) to the Amy Watkins Scholarship Fund. Amy Watkins was a KU graduate who was killed in NYC in 1999 while interning in the field of domestic violence. The Watkins Scholarship Fund, administered by the School of Social Welfare, will support awards to undergraduates planning to work in the areas of domestic violence or families at risk. Moriarty received a B.A. in Social Welfare from KU in 1993.
